Our Heroin Epidemic is Killing Thousands, if we don't teach our kids about drugs... someone else will!

You can bet that there is a heroin dealer standing by a school yard somewhere -- just waiting for the opportunity to get one more "customer" -- one more tragedy to unfold.

According to the CDC, More young people die from drug overdoses than any other cause. Why? Because they don't understand the dangers of drug and substance abuse.

The Drug Free Kids Video Library is one of the most comprehensive libraries of substance-abuse-prevention and intervention videos designed to teach people about the dangers of substance abuse.

These highly-rated videos are being successfully used by teachers, drug treatment counselors, police officers, libraries, and parents to help young people understand why drugs are dangerous.

Because of the continued epidemic of kids dying from overdoses and complications of drug use, we are making this amazing offer.

Now, you can get all 13 highly-acclaimed videos for ONLY $299 (only $23 each when you buy the entire set) This unheard of low price also includes unlimited public performance rights.*
